

Assistant/Associate Professor/Coordinator of Leisure Studies

Posting Details

POSITION INFORMATION

Posting Number 2012013P

Position Title Assistant/Associate Professor/Coordinator of Leisure Studies

Department Kinesiology

Job Summary

Education, Minimum Training and Experience Required A Ph.D./Ed.D degree required in therapeutic recreation, leisure studies, recreation, or related field. Must demonstrate interest in the areas of pedagogy, grant writing, research and publication, and other scholarly activities; must have demonstrated experience with online instruction (i.e. Blackboard, Moodle, etc.), certification a plus; have coursework in therapeutic recreation, leisure studies, recreation, gerontology, mental retardation, outdoor resources, and/or curriculum development; be actively involved with professional organizations; have teaching experience at the university level; and have the CTRS/CLP or be in the process of securing the certification.

Job Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be expected to:

Provide leadership in career field

Assist with department recruitment and retention

Teach courses in both on asynchronies and synchronies mode at the undergraduate and graduate levels

Conduct student advisement and recruitment

Supervise the LSP faculty

Work to maintain LSP accreditation

Work with other department programs and activities

Posting Date 04/29/2016

Closing Date

Special Instructions to Applicants

Applicant Documents

Required Documents

1. CV
2. Cover Letter
3. Transcript 1
4. Transcript 2
5. Transcript 3
6. Letter of Reference 1
7. Letter of Reference 2
8. Letter of Reference 3
9. FCRA Disclosure
10. Consumer Authorization Form

Optional Documents

None

Supplemental Questions

Required fields are indicated with an asterisk (*).