 1. 2. Timely Warnings. The University shall provide timely warnings to the campus community when Clery Act Crimes are reported to a CSA and are determined by the chief of police (or the chief's designee) to represent serious or continuing threat to students and employees. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to the University Police. The University may issue these warnings via postings on campus, through the Campus Alert system, through local news media, or in other ways. The individual or office responsible for issuing the warning will vary depending on how the warning is issued.
3. Reporting Crimes on a Voluntary, Confidential Basis. Individuals who witness or are the victim of crime, but who wish to remain anonymous, may report the crime to the University Police on a confidential basis. To do so, individuals should specifically request that they remain anonymous. The report ensures that the occurrence of the crime will be included in the University's ASR, assists the police in determining if there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or suspect, and enables the police, in appropriate circumstances, to alert the campus community to potential dangers. Filing an anonymous report may limit the ability of the police department to provide specific assistance or to investigate or solve a crime.

B. Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

1. As is addressed in the procedure policy handbook, Grambling State University (GSU) manages building access according to the building type and purpose and considers security in maintenance of campus facilities. Academic and administration buildings are locked after five o'clock p.m. daily and unlocked at seven o'clock a.m. the next day.
2. During regular business hours, GSU buildings (including housing facilities) are open to students, employees, contractors, and visitors. Some buildings may have individual hours that differ from the standard business hours, for example, the field house, performing arts center, natatorium, Frederick C. Hobdy Assembly Center, etc. These buildings will be secured by a designee from that perspective building and checked for secureness by the GSU Police Department. During non-business hours, entrance into buildings by faculty or staff personnel will be granted by GSU Police Department after the employee signs a sign-in sheet. The Department Heads who also have keys assigned to them may grant access to that particular building. Admittance by the GSU Police Department is provided only to persons with GSU IDs whose assigned workspace is in the building for access is requested. If persons having access to a building bring a visitor, the person having the visitor is totally responsible for those individual(s).
3. All University employees are responsible to ensure there are no unauthorized persons in their areas. The GSU Police Department should be notified of any suspicious person(s).
4. Residence halls have the capability to be secured 24 hours a day. The newer residence halls are accessed via card access device; the six older residence halls are accessed with keys. If the key or access device is lost or misplaced, the Residence Assistant (RA) assigned to the building for which access is requested should be contacted for access. Over extended breaks, the doors of all halls are secured around the clock by a mechanism separate from the card access system. All students who are staying on the campus during the break are moved to one hall and provided temporary access to that hall.

C. Campus Law Enforcement

1. Enforcement Authority of Police and Security. Grambling State University officers are trained and certified peace officers, and have the same arrest, detention, and police authority as any other police officer in Louisiana.
