

CAREER CLOTHES CLOSET

The Career Clothes Closet is to help students who need professional attire for interviews/Career Fairs. These items are donated by the community. Some students do not have the funds to get, as well as, maintain required clothing for interviewing. Therefore, we provide this service. These clothes are new or gently used clothing. Students do not have to return the clothing.

Students Must:

- Bring a current GSU ID and complete an application form. (See Attachment)
- Prepare or update resume with their Career Counselor
- Become a member of Career Services
- Schedule a mock interview with their counselor.
- Attend a personal or public session.
- Must have a Tiger Works Account

These items must be completed prior to any clothes being released.

Clothes Needed:

- All Professional clothing – Males/Females – suits, dresses, slacks, sports jackets, shirts, ties, shoes, jewelry. Please clean and place on hanger prior to donating.
