

CHANCELLOR'S DATA REPORT

The Louisiana Board of Regents Uniform Policy on Power-Based Violence/Sexual Misconduct, in accordance with Act 472, requires a Chancellor's Report to include the number of Formal Complaints of power-based violence received by an institution, the number of Formal Complaints which resulted in a finding that power-based violence occurred, the number of Formal Complaints in which the finding of power-based violence violation resulted in discipline or corrective action, the type of discipline or corrective action, and the amount of time it took to resolve each Formal Complaint.

Additionally, Act 472 requires a Chancellor's report to include information about retaliation which includes the number of reports of retaliation and any findings of any investigations or reports of retaliation.

Over the course of this reporting period, Grambling State University received four formal Title IX complaints and no complaints of retaliation or power-based violence. Additionally, over the course of the reporting period, Grambling State University did not encounter any employees that filed false reports or failed to report. Two of the aforementioned formal complaints were ultimately dismissed due to a lack of evidence and/or jurisdiction. The two remaining complaints are presently under investigation.

The Chancellor's (President's) Report includes formal complaints of power-based violence, status and disposition of Title IX incidents and complaints.
